Topical Bible Studies

BibleWay Publishing's objective is to make Bible lessons available to anyone interested in learning more about God and His will. It is the non-profit Bible ministry of Randolph Dunn.

Lessons can be studied online, in classrooms, by Zoom, downloaded to a digital device, emailed, printed, or used by individuals, groups, or churches in their Bible educational ministry. Using these lessons by copying, downloading, emailing, or printing you agree not to alter, add, or replace the content of any lesson.

BWP recommends that you study your Bible to determine the accuracy of what is stated in these lessons or from any other source. Commentaries and teachings of preachers, ministers, pastors, priests, and rabbis are the authors' understanding and are not equivalent to the inspired Bible.

You should always verify all comments, opinions, and teachings since it is YOUR responsibility to seek, know, and do the will of God.

To check the truth of any teaching, read different Bible translations, consult Bible dictionaries and lexicons to learn the meaning of unfamiliar words or phrases. Be careful accepting dictionary definitions, as word and phrase meanings change over time. Also, multiple Greek words have different meanings that can be translated into one English word which can distort the original meaning.

May you allow God to guide you in your study of His Holy Word, the Bible.

How Is One To Worship?

Understanding the what, who, when and where of worship should help in understanding the how of worshipping. If giving ourselves as a living sacrifice is a lifestyle of service then there are many acts one can and should do that would be considered worship. But, they must be motivated out of a desire to be more like Christ by following His examples while giving God glory, honor, praise and adoration.

Man is to worship in his spiritual being and in truth [from the heart not ritual ], which requires knowledge. Worship is not some physical act, a ritual, but something coming from within, from love and desire to honor, praise and please. One totally incapable of performing a physical act can still worship and serve God.

The outpouring of love, adoration and praise from within man's inner being, his heart and seat of emotion, feelings and attitude is service, true worship. This can be done alone or with a group. Similar actions absent emotions and feelings of love, adoration and praise done for the purpose of complying with a command or those centered on self are vain worship. Jesus stated "these people honor me with their lips, [the voice is heard], but their hearts [no thought ] are far from me. They worship me in vain" (Matthew 15:8-9, Mark 7:6 quoting from Isaiah 29:13).

If one's thoughts and emotions are based upon a knowledge of God and they have an intimate relationship with Him, then they have trained their whole being to love, adore, praise, serve and worship God with a real and genuine desire to please him [Spirit and truth - not fake or some ritual]. He is now prepared to serve God in spirit and truth. But what is one to do when serving or worshipping God?

One can read in Genesis that while God was delivering Abraham's descendants from bondage in Egypt, He established a Covenant with them. In this covenant, He selected a group of people to serve Him as priests to offer animal sacrifices for themselves and all the people. God through Moses gave very specific instructions on how their service of offering sacrifices was to be done.

Many years later God came to earth in the form of the man referred to as Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ. He lived as one of His creations facing the same type of temptations as man but without sin thus becoming the perfect sacrifice for sin by offering Himself up to the Father as the blood sacrifice required to remove man's sins. The apostle John in Revelation 1:6 states "He has made us a Kingdom of priests for God his Father."

God's instructions to the New Covenant priests were also specific although very different than those of the Old Covenant. The New Covenant priests, those men, and women in Christ, are to be living sacrifices (Romans 12:1) as they daily serve God by doing good deeds, encouraging others toward faithfulness, and offering thanks, praises, and adoration to Him from the heart.
